THE MONDAY REPORT

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

JUNIOR COLLEGE DIVISION 202 SKYLAND BLVD. TUSCALOOSA, AL 35405

Lucy Kubiszyn
Editor

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
Record Series: E-C Campus Newspaper
File: 1-12-5
Date: 9-29-95

HIGH SCHOOL SCHOLARS' BOWL COMPETITION RESULTS

.....Tuscaloosa Academy was named the First Place overall winner in the local competition of the Alabama High School Scholars' Bowl held recently at Shelton State Community College.

Holt High School was the Second Place Overall Winner, and Bill Stephens from Holt was named the Most Valuable Player.

Other members of the All- Star team are: Scott Allen, Tuscaloosa County High School; David Dismuke, Hillcrest High School; Steven Todd, Sumter Academy.

The 1A Division winner was Sumter Academy, and the 2A Division winner was Tuscaloosa Academy. Sulligent High School was the 3A Division winner with Holt High School the winner in the 5A competition. Tuscaloosa County High School was the winner in the 6A competition.

All divisons winners will go to the district competition.

Diane Layton is chairman of Shelton's High School Scholars' Bowl.

HONORS SEMINAR SCHEDULED FOR SPRING

PHI THETA KAPPA, NATIONAL JUNIOR COLLEGE HONORARY, is sponsoring an Honors Seminar for one hour's credit during the Spring quarter. A six-week course, the seminar will meet on Tuesday evenings from 7:30-9:30 p.m. The topic will be "The American Dream." A different speaker will be featured each class session followed by a class discussion. No outside work is required. Scheduled speakers include: Dr. Arthur Howington, March 31; Dr. Randall Jarrell, April 7; Dr. Alan Mallory, April 14; Dr. Tom Dohrman, April 21; Dr. Bethany Engle, April 28; Dr. Sankey Sherer, May 5.

Anyone who is interested in the course should register for the course as Hum=299, Directed Studies in Humanities.

FAIR SELECTED AS JANUARY STUDENT OF THE MONTH

Sherri Fair, a sophomore at Shelton State majoring in elementary education, has been selected by the Humanities Division as the "January Student of the Month." She is currently attending the college on a Performing Arts Scholarship and serves as an accompanist for various musical productions at the college. Sherri plans to transfer to the University of Alabama in the fall of 1987 where she will major ion elementary education and monor in music.

Phi Theta Kappa, sponsor of The Student of the Month program, is pleased to honor Sherri Fair.

MUSICAL NOTES

PAULETTE DOCKERY PERFORMED FOR THE TUSCALOOSA MUSIC CLUB ON Wednesday, Januarty 14. She is a recipient of the MADEL PEARSOIN SCHOLARSHIP . Paulette is minoring in music at Shelton State and is a student of Glinda Blackshear.

SHELTON CELEBRATES BLACK HISTORY MONTH

.....Shelton State Community College in celebration of Black History Month will present an AFRI production entitled "A Musical and Drama Memory of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr." on Tuesday, February 17, at 11 a.m. in the junior college auditorium.

AFRI Productions is a musical theatre company based in New York City.

A musical documentary, this production fuses choreographed movement, choral speaking, dramatic episodes, moving melodies and haunting harmonies to skillfully blend a momentous movement on American life.

The production covers the life of Dr. King and his co-leaders as they move from isolated confrontation to national concern in the civil rights struggle.

Chairman of Black History Month for the college is Bessie German. The public is invited to attend.

LPN CLASS

THE WEEKEND PRACTICAL NURSING CLASS ADOPTED A FAMILY THROUGH THE DEPARTMENT OF PENSIONS AND SECURITIES DURING THE CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS. The class collected canned goods and presents for the mother and her two sons. According to DPS, the family was very appreciative for the gifts.

The weekend LPN class will graduate March 5. The class is making plans for a luncheon at The Landing prior to graduation. Several of the students, H. Deese, F. Lesley, C. Ingram, C. Lewis anfd L. White have already secured jobs. Congratulations to two other members of the class, Carmen Grimsley and Cecile Ingram, on their recent weddings.

LIFE SAVING COURSE TO BE OFFERED

SHELTON STATE WILL OFFER acourse in life savings, PED 146, Advanced Life Saving, during Spring quarter. The certification possible through this course, which will be taught at the downtown YMCA, is necessary in order to get a job as a lifeguard this summer.

In order to offer this class, there must be a minimum of 10 students who would like to enroll. If you are interested in this class, contact the counseling center or Susan Thomas.

LADY BUCCANEER ROSTER ANNOUNCED

THE SHELTON STATE LADY BUCCANEERS softball team has announced its 1987 roster, according to coach Steve King. Buccaneers this season include Julie Atkins, Tonya Ballas, Kim Bearden, Cheryl Calloway, Cathy Clarke, Yvette Collins, Kim Cunningham, Melinda Herring, Carmon Hicks, Karen Higgins, Katrena Hill, Melinda Hunnicutt, Sharon Miller, jackie Richey, Danna Spencer, Ashley Tate/

SHELTON DEAN HEADS ARTICULATION TASK FORCE FOR ALABAMA COLLEGE SYSTEM

Dr. Arthur Howington, dean of instruction for Shelton State's Junior College Division and chairman of the Articulation Task Force for the Alabama College System, recently presented the first copy of Course Directory to Chancellor Charles L. Payne.

The Directory will assist Alabama public colleges and universities in determining the official transfer equivalency of courses offered through the state's two-year colleges.

The Directory, which will be updated annually, establishes standard numbers, titles and descriptions for general education courses and for selected occupational fields.